“The best book to put on a fisherman’s shelf. Each painting pops with taxonomic detail, and the stories are every bit as rich.”

- Mark Sampson, Ocean Pines Independent

“...Flick has painted breathtaking reproductions of each fish. [The fish] looks like it will jump right out of the book and flop back into the water.”

- Gene Chague, The Berkshire Eagle

“Never mind how he does it: the fact is that these fish appear poised to swim off the very paper they’re printed on.” - Florida Sportfishing Magazine

“Ford has an uncanny ability to reproduce game fish in their entire lifelike splendor.”

- IGFA Certified Captain Adrian Watt

“This book belongs on your holiday gift list... for you, if for nobody else.” - Saltwater Sportsman

“BIG has enough protein to fuel the saltwater dreams of wannabe Hemingways.” - The Star

“...combines Rivkin’s considerable narrative skills with Ford’s uncanny ability to reproduce game fish in their entire lifelike splendor.”

- Bass Fishing Resource Guide

“... a fascinating salute to the sportsmanship of dedicated fishermen.” - Bob Izumi’s Real Fishing

“BIG showcases Ford’s unique ability to combine the clarity of scientific illustration with the true artist’s eye for color and detail.”

- BoatU.S. Magazine

“Ford’s fish are entertaining in their individual swagger. Pick up BIG for a visual punch as well as the noteworthy tales that coincide with each special catch.” - Fly Fisherman Magazine

“Once in awhile, out of the dozens of books about sport fishing published annually, one will stand out in the crowd as something special. BIG: The 50 Greatest World Record Catches fits that bill.”

- Bill Baab, The Augusta Chronicle

“Trophy fish buffs are sure to enjoy BIG.”

- Outdoor Canada Fishing
